Containers Lost Overboard off NSW Coast

Stockwell International has received notice that on Sunday the 24th of May 40 shipping containers have been lost overboard off the coast of NSW.

The vessel APL England lost propulsion and rolled during heavy seas whilst traveling from China to Australia. Approximately 74 containers have also been damaged.

Stockwell International is yet to confirm what containers were lost overboard, but will update as the investigation continues.

Please feel free to discuss any of your concerns with your Stockwells representative via email or call on 1300 786 468.

Patricks Port Botany Closure

Dear Customer,

Patricks Port Botany have issued a notice advising the terminal has a planned stoppage on Thursday 28th of May. The closure is scheduled from 6.00am for an expected 12 hour duration. Landside operations will not be available during this time.

The closure has been scheduled for repairs to pavement and infrastructure.

A Stockwells customer service representative will be contacting affected clients regarding specific containers impacted by this closure.

Please feel free to discuss any of your concerns with your Stockwells representative via email or call on 1300 786 468.
