

Stockwell International News Alert New Zealand

16th September 2020

Sydney Port Congestion Surcharge Update

Dear Customers,

Stockwell International has been updated that due to the Protected Industrial Action that commenced on the 4th of September (see news alert here), and the congestion that Sydney is experiencing, several shipping lines have introduced a Port Congestion Surcharge.

As mentioned on the 9th September (see news alert here), Shipping line MSC had to apply a Congestion Surcharge to maintain the level of service required. View notice here.

Stockwell International has been advised that shipping line ANL/CMA/CGM has also applied a Congestion Surcharge, view notice here.

The Congestion Surcharge of USD 285 per TEU will apply to the following:

- Export cargo for all vessels (non USA trades) departing Sydney on or after 17th September
- Import cargo for all vessels (non USA trades) arriving Sydney on or after 17th September
- Export cargo for all vessels (USA trades) departing Sydney on or after 10th October
- Imports for all cargo received (USA trades) on or after 10th October

Consolidators Evans has advised they have applied a Congestion Surcharge effective immediately.

- LCL export ex Sydney the amount will be US$13.50 per RT based on cargo being on an MSC, CGM, ANL or PIL Master B/L
- the NZ trade lane effected (Sydney to Lyttelton), Congestion Surcharge will be charged at AU$ 15.00 per RT
- import LCL into Sydney the charge will be US$ 13.50 per RT

Unfortunately Stockwell International has no choice but to pass this cost on.

There is almost a 4 week waiting time to get space on vessels *please ensure to let us know about bookings as soon as possible so space can be allocated in time.
